

EXPERIENCED RECEIVER OPENS NEW OFFICE IN MIAMI

Andrew Bolnick & Associates Handles Broad Spectrum of Commercial Real Estate Properties

MIAMI, FL (Oct. 7, 2009) – Andrew J. Bolnick, one of the most experienced and respected receivers in the country, has opened an office in Miami to service clients throughout South Florida.

Backed by almost 30 years of experience, Andrew Bolnick and Associates works with financial institutions, insurance companies, real estate investment trusts, hedge funds and others, working across the commercial real estate spectrum of office buildings, retail centers, hotels, marinas, golf courses and multi-family residential properties.

Bolnick has been at the forefront of the development of receivership law, offering the experience and ability to resolve the most complex and troubled real estate cases, including eight residential communities built by Levitt Homes, and numerous other high-profile commercial and residential projects throughout Florida.

“We are excited to have a presence in the market here, where we can stabilize distressed real estate properties and develop corresponding business plans to monitor and control costs,” Bolnick said. “We have been through every real estate cycle of the last three decades, which is why our level of experience is particularly in demand at this time.”

Andrew Bolnick & Associates is based in Clearwater, and has an office in Chicago to service clients in the Midwest. In Miami, the company is located at SunTrust International Center, 1 S.E. Third Ave., Suite 1980, Miami, FL, 33131. For more information, contact Andrew J. Bolnick, (305) 347-4006 or email abolnick@andrewbolnick.com.
